Creating Genuine Leaders

From the moment she enters the room, Kimberley captivates her audiences with her authenticity, warmth and presence. She is the President and Co-founder of Imagemakers International – a leadership and personal development company that develops people and leaders for the 21st Century.

Formerly one of Xerox Canada and Oracle Corporations' top sales executives, she has appeared on national television and her expertise has been sought out for both radio and newspaper interviews.

During her 20 year speaking career, she has received many standing ovations and has been described as 'enlightening', 'thought-provoking' and 'life-changing'.

Her interactive, practical keynotes are infused with heartwarming stories that touch people's hearts and engage their minds. That is how she inspires, motivates and encourages people to be the best they can possibly be.

And perhaps that is why she has been hired by some of North America's largest and fast-growing companies. Her client list includes such leading companies as Ernst and Young LLP, Oracle Canada, Sandals and Beaches Resorts and Universal Music

◆ Leadership for the 21st Century –

The 10 Key Steps to Becoming a Genuine Leader

Today's economic realities have brought many new challenges for both employees and the companies that employ them. The companies that will thrive and survive these challenging times, realize that they must create a culture of genuine leaders who have values to follow that will inspire others to emulate them. This shift in culture will ensure employees feel valued and respected and in turn, allow them to focus. And the increase in productivity, profits and engagement, will follow.

◆ Achieving Balance in an Unbalanced World – The Roadmap

We are living in a 24/7 world. For so many, work is becoming home and home is becoming work. As the boundary that separates these two worlds disappears, we are losing sight of who we really are and how extraordinary we can be when we lead from our core. If we are to keep the human spirit alive and importantly, reach our full potential, living in alignment with our values and striving for balance, must be seen as a top priority.

◆ Leading from the Heart - The Power of Compassion and Respect

Since the beginning of time, successful companies have had a clearly defined vision. So why then, when it comes to embracing that vision, do employees not buy into it? We believe the main reason is because many organizations have failed to recognize the power of respect and compassion in the workplace and in so doing, fail to engage the hearts and minds of those they lead. Discover how respect and compassion will unleash your organization's potential and in the process, create a culture of genuine and inspiring leaders.

◆ Leadership Presence – The Key to Creating Genuine Relationships

Today's business world has become intensely competitive. Professionals, who wish to build their brand, develop new client relationships or leverage their go-to-market strategy, must develop skills that will help them stand out from the crowd. In order to do so, they must develop a unique set of skills that will cultivate respect, build credibility and strengthen relationships. And it all begins with leadership presence.
