NC-Based Global Speakers Bureau Opens Mid-Atlantic Division Washington, DC, Office Adds Christian Talent Plus Political Speakers

Greensboro, NC, November 22, 2021— Remarkable! A Speakers Bureau announces their latest expansion to include a Washington, D.C.-based Mid-Atlantic division to further diversify and increase talent representation to include Christian speakers and music artists plus political speakers on a national and global stage.

“Our society and our culture are both changing moment by moment, and more than ever before we see an increasing market demand for Christian talent and political speakers,” said CEO and founder Sue Falcone. “We want to provide the most value for our clients.”

The company’s new, Washington, D.C.-based Regional Director of Talent Acquisition Michael Towers will focus on acquiring and representing Christian speakers and music artists plus political speakers for bookings throughout U.S. and international venues. With 30 years of experience in live entertainment, corporate events and the conference industry, Towers believes that representing Remarkable! is a way to empower the most talented speakers, celebrities, entertainers and music artists.

“I’m excited to be on board with Remarkable! and play a major part in building a diversified talent base while helping to spread positive messages to our global audiences,” said Towers. “I’m looking forward to a long-lasting relationship with the Remarkable! team.”

Remarkable! Represents a multitude of talent, including award-winning speakers David Avrin, Saana Azzam, Colette Carlson, Chester Elton, Adrian Gostick, Mary Kelly, Linda Larsen, Genein Letford, Dean Lindsay, Doug Lipp, Dr. Daren Martin, Justin Osmond, Matthew Pollard, Meredith Elliot Powell, Bobby Roth, Kenyon Salo, Bill Stainton, Nicholas Webb, and award-winning Entertainers and Music Artists: Chairmen of the Board, Michael Grandinetti and Merrill Osmond.

The bureau services vast industry clients worldwide, including Fortune 500 companies, large and mid-size businesses, professional business associations and conferences, nonprofit organizations, HR professionals, colleges and universities plus entertainment event planners.

“Remarkable! A Speakers Bureau has achieved an award-winning international profile with a wide array of crowd-pleasing, in-person and certified virtual talent and unparalleled commitment,” said Falcone. “We tailor our services to each client's unique, individual needs and we provide top, personalized representation for every one of our talented speakers, celebrities, entertainers and music artists. Plus, our booking services are covered by our talent, so we work free for our clients."

About Remarkable! A Speakers Bureau – Book Outside the Box!

Remarkable! A Speakers Bureau is a 100% woman-owned, full-service speakers bureau and talent booking agency with locations across the country. Husband Carmen Falcone serves as CFO, which stands for both Chief Financial Officer and Chief Fun Officer! Since 2009, the company has booked talent for in-person, virtual (live and pre-recorded) and hybrid events with both national and global audiences among more than 5,000 clients. At Remarkable!, we say, "Book Outside the Box!"

Remarkable! represents award-winning celebrities, compelling storytellers, certified virtual presenters, motivational marvels, inspiring thought leaders, corporate entertainers, emcees, best-selling authors, influential politicians, and honored Christian speakers plus legendary music artists and bands to create unforgettable and memorable event experiences.

With further expansions planned, the company holds offices headquartered in Greensboro, NC. Operations also include two bi-coastal divisions: a West Coast Division in California, focused on acquiring celebrity, entertainment and music talent and headed by Steve Zall and Sid Fish, both with decades of experience in the entertainment industry; and now a Mid-Atlantic Division in Washington, D.C., focused on procuring both Christian speakers and music artists plus political speakers, headed by Michael Towers, with more than 30 years of experience in live entertainment.

A percentage of Remarkable! A Speakers Bureau profits is given to both local and national nonprofits.

About Sue Falcone

CEO Sue Falcone is dedicated to providing a top talent booking experience for both her clients and represented talent, while connecting audiences with powerful, lasting messages for all industries and audiences. Falcone is backed by more than 50 years in the events industry as a former corporate executive, professional speaker and best-selling author, and now as a talent "booker." She received the Outstanding Women in Business Award issued by the Triad Business Journal in April 2017, was featured in the July 2021 issue of Global Leaders Today Magazine, is a member of the Leadership-HP class of 2017 and was recognized as Volunteer of the Year by the Guilford Merchants Association. Sue appears on many podcasts and global panel discussions as an events industry expert and company owner, and is Director of Lifetree Cafe, a weekly nonprofit event both she and her husband host.

About Michael Towers

Michael Towers leads Remarkable! A Speakers Bureau's new Mid-Atlantic Division as Regional Director of Talent Acquisition. Towers has achieved 30 years of experience in the live entertainment, corporate events and conference industries and has spent a career working backstage as an entertainment technician for conventions, movies, concerts and theatre, including "Wicked!," "Les Misérables," "The Nutcracker" and "Fiddler on the Roof." He has contributed to the success of musical acts such as Bruce Springsteen, Britany Spears and The Rolling Stones. He participated in the making of HBO's "The Wire" and even played a small role. Today, Towers is also a highly sought-after professional speaker, putting the spotlight on mental health.
